RADCLIFF MAN SENTENCED FOR ABUSIVE SEXUAL CONTACT OF TWO CHILDREN ON FORT KNOX

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that CHRISTOPHER JAMES RAMOS, age 25, of Radcliff, Kentucky, was sentenced in United States District Court for two counts of abusive sexual contact of children under the age of twelve on Fort Knox Military Reservation.

United States District Judge Jennifer B. Coffman sentenced Ramos, a civilian with no current affiliation with Fort Knox, to 3 years and 1 month of imprisonment to be followed by 7 years of supervised release. Judge Coffman also ordered the defendant to pay $5,000 in restitution to the families of the child victims as well as special penalty assessments totaling $200. Ramos will be further required to register as a sexual offender and will have to undergo sexual offender counseling.

During a guilty plea hearing on March 9, 2006, Ramos acknowledged a factual basis for the charges on which he was sentenced today. Ramos admitted that on November 22, 2005, he intentionally touched a child under the age of twelve on Fort Knox in the genital area for Ramos' sexual gratification when he was babysitting the child. Ramos also admitted that between October 1, 2005, and November 19, 2005, he intentionally touched another child under the age of twelve on Fort Knox in the breast area for Ramos' sexual gratification when he was babysitting the child.
